

SUNDAYS & BEYOND

The Saint Mark's Cathedral weekly newsletter

ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY ♦ NOVEMBER 4, 2018

Today is All Saints' Sunday and the Annual Ingathering!

Today we celebrate All Saints' Sunday, as we baptize six infants and one young adult in the new font, and remember all those whom we love but see no longer. We will also gather in our financial commitments today and ask God's blessings on them, giving thanks for you who make ministry possible in this place. Please join in a festive celebration in the Cathedral Nave after the 9 and 11 a.m. services, recognizing the newly baptized as well as all who have made financial commitments for 2019.

Thank you to all who have made your commitments. If you haven't yet, you can still make your pledge online anytime at saintmarks.org/give or contact Erik Donner at (206) 323-0300 x 217. Your gift matters! On Nov. 18, on Bishop Rickel's visitation day, we will publish the names of all those who have recorded their pledges to Saint Mark's for 2019. Thank you for all you do in support of Saint Mark's. We are blessed by your generosity!

Choral Evensong for the Festivals of All Saints and All Souls

TODAY, 4:30 P.M., *Cathedral Nave

Unite your eventide prayers and praises with the saints and all whom we love but see no longer in this first Evensong after our return to Pacific Standard Time. Saint Mark's Evensong Choir will sing Herbert Brewer's rousing setting of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis in the key of D, and Edgar Bainton's beloved setting of St. John's words from Revelation, "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth... and God shall wipe away all tears." *Please note that incense will be used at this service.

20s+30s: Questioning Together

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 7:30-9 P.M., Leffler Living Room

This group gathering offers a supportive community for those in their 20s and 30s to explore questions of faith and meaning in our time. We will meet on the first Monday of every month. The topic for November: "What is sin? What is forgiveness?" Wherever you are in your faith journey, you are welcome. A light dinner will be served; an RSVP is appreciated but not required. To RSVP or for questions, contact Rachel McNary, rachel.mcnary@gmail.com. We look forward to seeing you there!

The Arts at Saint Mark's Concert Series and Capella Romana present: They Are At Rest: A Remembrance of the 1918 Armistice

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 8 P.M., Cathedral Nave

In commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I, this professional Portland-based choir will sing of Elgar, Parry, Holst, Gurney, and Stanford. English conductor Guy Protheroe returns to direct Cappella Romana in this concert of profound sacred works by British composers. Pre-concert talk with the director begins at 7 p.m. This concert is produced by Capella Romana; please purchase passes at cappellaromana.org. Saint Mark's parishioners SAVE 30% on tickets in sections A & B with discount code "SAINTMARK." Check out the rest of the 2018-2019 concert series at saintmarks.org/concerts.

Incense at 11 a.m. liturgy today

Please note that the 11 a.m. service today will include the use of incense as part of the liturgy on this feast day.

The Cathedral Shop: Roots of South Sudan jewelry trunk show today

Join us for a vendor trunk show of beautiful beaded jewelry from South Sudan. The Roots Project is a non-profit based in Juba, Southern Sudan. The aim is to offer opportunities for social and economic empowerment, preserve local cultures and to create a positive environment that fosters understanding and tolerance. Also, stay tuned for trunk shows and special events at the Shop every Sunday from now until Christmas! Next week we'll have a book signing for Open Borders, (more on pg 3.)

Saying Prayers for Election Day

On Tuesday Nov. 6, Election Day, Dean Thomason will also lead prayer vigils for our nation in Thomsen Chapel 12-12:30 p.m. and 5:30-6 p.m. All are welcome. The Cathedral is also open daily (except holidays) 8 a.m.-7 p.m. for prayer. The outdoor labyrinth is available to walk at all times.

Dean Thomason presents: The Message of Hope in the Book of Revelation

WEDNESDAY NOV. 7, 6:45-8:15 P.M.,

Bloedel Hall; Community dinner: 6-6:30 p.m. (adults $7, children $5, max family $20); Program: 6:45 p.m., no fee
What does the Book of Revelation have to say to us about the challenges of our time? Abuses of power by leaders, suffering the slings and arrows of injustice in light of one's faith, an alternative message of hope for what feels like the "end times" in which we live today... Drawing on his sabbatical studies while on the island of Patmos, Dean Thomason views the controversial book through an interpretive lens of hope that can inform our lives today in meaningful ways.

Compline Choir House Concert: Songs of Peace

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 3 P.M.

The Compline Choir invites you to an afternoon of music celebrating peace, reconciliation, and concord in recognition of the 100th anniversary of Armistice Day and in support of the choir's upcoming pilgrimage to Canterbury and Salisbury cathedrals in August 2019. This salon-style concert will be performed in the home of Al and Janet Berg. Light refreshments will be served, and your donations will be gladly accepted! Seating is limited, so kindly RSVP to director@complinechoir.org with the number in your party no later than November 1. There will be two more opportunities to support the Compline Choir through musical gatherings in the spring; however, if you'd like to make a donation in lieu of attendance, please visit complinechoir.org/support to make an online contribution.

Newcomers Coffee with Clergy

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11,
AFTER 9 & 11 A.M. SERVICES,
Carriage House

Each month we host a conversation with newcomers after both 9 and 11 a.m. services to help us get to know each other, share our stories, and introduce newcomers to Saint Mark's and the Episcopal Church. Contact Deacon Earl, newcomers@saintmarks.org.

Sunday Forum: Justice Ministries Update

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Members of the Justice Ministries Coordinating Team (JCMT) will give an update about the state of justice ministry at Saint Mark's. Come and learn more about how Saint Mark's is putting its faith into practice and how you can participate in and support this vibrant part of our collective life together.

Cathedral Book Group

SUNDAY, NOV. 11, 12:30 P.M., Cathedral House 209

A wonderful reading opportunity: in November we will discuss Educated, by Tara Westover, recommended by former President Obama. It is "a remarkable memoir of a young woman raised in a survivalist family in Idaho who strives for education while still showing great understanding and love for the world she leaves behind." And, plan ahead! On January 13, 2019 we discuss the recently published history of St. Mark's written by Alan Davidson, who will join us for the discussion. Copies available in the Cathedral Book Store.

Open Borders book signing and talk with parishioners Betsy Bell, Dick Carter and Elena Campbell

SUNDAY, NOV. 11, 12:15 P.M., Cathedral Shop

Saint Mark's parishioner Betsy Bell will talk about Open Borders, her memoir about her family's involvement in the anti-nuclear war Seattle-based movement known as Target Seattle (1982-1984.) Joining her will be Dick Carter, author of an essay included in the book; and Elena Campbell, professor of history at the University of Washington, who specializes in memory as an historical research resource.

Faith Action Network Annual Dinner

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 5:30 P.M.

The Faith Action Network's annual fundraising dinner will be held on Sunday, November 18, from 5:30 to 7:30, at the Renton Pavilion Event Center. This interfaith gathering is a wonderful opportunity to meet other concerned Washingtonians as we gather to continue to move forward our dream for the common good. The Faith Action Network works to change the political landscape at the state level, representing all faith traditions in the struggle for inclusion, compassion, peace, and justice. We can make a difference! More detailed information at: fanwa.org. If you would like to be seated with other members of St. Mark's, simply mention that on your registration. Last year this event sold out a week in advance, so make sure to get registered! For further information contact Tom Sunderland at tsunderland@mail.com.

November 18: Friends Talking: Bishop Rickel and Dean Thomason

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Bishop Rickel and Dean Thomason will host a conversation for the whole Saint Mark's community—children welcome!—about the role of a cathedral, the future of the Church, the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement and more.

Gathering Families with new babies

Has a baby become part of your family in the last 12 months? Are you interested in gathering with other new parents and families at Saint Mark's? Reach out to Kelly Moody, kmoody@saintmarks.org, to find out what's happening! We are planning a couple of get togethers in the coming months, both at Saint Mark's and in one another's homes.

Advent Event and Potluck

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 6 P.M., Bloedel Hall

Prepare your hearts and homes for Immanuel, God with Us by coming to the annual Advent festival at Saint Mark's. We will provide dinner and activities for people of all ages, including:

wreath making, stained glass ornaments, cookie decorating, stamping and contemplative crafts and ideas to bring home. Feel free to bring festive greens. The gathering will include a meal, songs, fellowship and a blessing of Advent wreaths. Make the transition into Advent after Thanksgiving with simple spiritual practices that pave the way for Christmas.

Alan Davidson book talk at Elliott Bay Book Company

NOVEMBER 18, 3 P.M., The Elliott Book Company, 1521 10th Ave.

Saint Mark's parishioner and author Alan Davidson, who wrote the newly-published History of Saint Mark's, will give a lecture on Saint Mark's history at The Elliott Bay Book Company on November 18. The talk will cover the formation of Saint Mark's parish, as well as the demographic, economic, political, social and cultural context that shaped Seattle.
